

Ylang-Ylang (Extra)

(Canangium odorata forma genuina) Botanical Family: Anonaceae

A 7-metre high tree that produces large, highly scented, drooping, flowers.

Plant Part used: flowers

Method of Extraction: steam distillation

Countries of Production: Madagascar (Comoros Islands)

Fragrance: intense, exotic floral

Note: middle

Main Chemical Components:

benzyl acetate, p-carsyl methylether, linalol, methyl benzoate, sesquiterpenes

General Effect: calming

Indicated for:

The Face

balancing combination
oily revitalisation
scarring
soothing toning

The Body

anxiety balancing
insomnia
nervous conditions
pre-menstrual tension
relaxing
spasm
stress
tension
tissue revitalising
toning

Body Blending Guide:

Bergamot, geranium, ginger, grapefruit, jasmine, lemon, mandarin, neroli, orange, palmarosa, patchouli, petitgrain, rose maroc, sandalwood

Contra-indications:

None known

Purchasing Guide:

There are four grades, and the chemistry is very different between them. Only use 'extra quality' for therapeutic work.

Price Range: medium