

Mandarin

(Citrus reticulata) Botanical Family: Rutaceae

A small evergreen tree, producing fragrant, cream-coloured flowers and small, loose skinned fruits, orange in colour.

Plant Part used: fruit rind

Method of Extraction: cold expression

Countries of Production: USA, Brazil, Algeria, Tunisia, Argentina

Fragrance: sweet, fruity, citrus

Note: top

Main Chemical Components:

limonene, γ -terpinolene, α -pinene, β -pinene

General Effect: calming, refreshing

Indicated for:

The Face

combination skin
oily skin
scarring

The Body

anxiety balancing calming convalescence
fatigue
general body oil
relaxing
stretch marks
tension

Body Blending Guide:

Black pepper, camomile roman, clary sage, frankincense, geranium, grapefruit, jasmine, juniper, lemon, neroli, palmarosa, patchouli, petitgrain, rose maroc, rose otto, sandalwood, ylang-ylang

Contra-indications:

Should not be used prior to sunbed use, or before going in prolonged sunlight

Purchasing Guide:

Price Range: low